

I'm desperate, every time in school I'll think of him –

October 24, 2019

Bimbo died in Milan on Tuesday 22 October, following the traumas reported in the fall at school. The teacher does not give herself peace: "I am desperate".

"I am desperate and every time I enter that school I will think of him" Says one of the two teachers of the child's class who died a few days ago. On October 18, the six-year-old boy crashed while he was in school, the Milanese Pirelli. From the day the teacher never returned to the classroom and would have taken a few days of leave to overcome what happened that morning.

"The teacher has already been heard, but as a person informed about the facts – said the woman's lawyer – to date we have not received notification of his registration in the register of suspects. A tragedy to witness such a scene when the child smiled up in class two minutes before".

On the hypotheses of prosecution of the Milan prosecutor, at the moment culpable homicide against unknown persons, the lawyer explains to Ansa that his assisted, support teacher cannot be held responsible for what happened.

Fioramonti's thought

Minister of Education Fioramonti, this morning in Milan for Expo Training, asked for a minute of silence. "I came to Milan on tiptoe, sending a message from father to family, which I imagine is torn by a tragedy from which one cannot leave" Said the minister, recalling that the tragedy could perhaps have been avoided with more funding, more staff and more suitable structures.

Also this morning the minister met privately with the head teacher of the Pirelli institute "to bring the proximity of the ministry to her and to her community".
